

Mikaela Livadiotis – 100 Word Bio

Mikaela Livadiotis is a London-based pianist based interested especially in contemporary works and new music. She completed her postgraduate studies with Distinction at The Royal College of Music and is currently on an Artist Diploma programme at Trinity Laban Conservatoire, supported by the Jimmy Cross Prize Fund Award.

Mikaela has performed in venues including: St John's Smith Square, Conway Hall, The V&A Museum, Amaryllis Fleming Concert Hall, the CBSO Centre, Birmingham Symphony Hall and The Place.

She acts as a co-director for Company Concentric, a London-based circle of creatives working in community arts fields as well as performing original works.